THE HOMAGE OF JUSTICE.

We have compiled, from various sources, the following disinterested testimonials, which were tors; but under one [Harrison] who had proved him-commanded from their several authors by the lot. ty patriotism, valor talents and success of Gen. HARRISON, long before he was named for the Presidency, and in times which ought to give them weight sufficient to bear down all the petty calumnies and quibbling objections which party malig nity may now presume to forge against the war worn and time honored patriot and soldier.

The authorities we present against the puny attacks of Loco-Foco Federalism, and which we shall stereotype es an impregnable barricade a gainst all opposition, are no less than the Cos OF INDIANA, and Of KENTUCKY, JAMES MADISON, JAMES MORROE, COL. RICHARD M. JOHN SOR, ASTHOGY WAYNE, LANGBON CHEVES, SI-MON SNYDER, GOV. SHELBY, COM. PERRY, COL. CROSHAN, Con. DAVIES, and others, including in the illustrious catalogue even Thomas Ritchie

gress, Dec. 18, 1811, said, While it is deeply lamented that so many valuable lives have been lost in the action which took place on the 7th ultimo, Congress will see with satisfaction the dauntless spirit of fortitude victo riously displayed by every description of troops en raged, as well as the collected firmness which distinguished their commander on an occasion requiring the utmost exertions of valour and discipline JAMES MADISON in his message to Congress.

Nov. 1812, said, An ample force from the States of Kentucky

Ohio, Pennsylvania, and Virginia, is placed, with the addition of a few regulars under the command of Brigadier Gen. HARRISON, possesses the entire confidence of his fellow soldiers, among whom are citizens, some of them volunteers in the ranks, not less distinguished by their political stations than by their, personal merits.
In Mr. Madison's message of Dec. 1813, the empliment was extended, as follows:

The success on Lake Erie having opened a pas sage on the territory of the enemy, the officer com manding the Northwestern arms, transferred the war thither, end, rapidly pursuing the hostile troops, fleeing with their savage associate, forced a general action, which quickly terminated in the capture of the British, and dispersion of the savage

This result is signally honorable to Major GEN RAL HARRISON, by whose military talents it was prepared.

The following tribute of praise was paid to Gen-

The following resolve of both houses of th Legislature of Kentucky, will have a similar effect on the nerves of those who circulate the slander respecting the "white borse," and the fall of the gallant Col. Daviess.

Legislature of Kentucky, Jan. 7, 1812. Resolved, By the Senate and House of Repre sentatives of the State of Kentucky, that in the late campaign against the Indians upon the Wabash, Gov. William Henry Harrison has behaved like a hero, a patriot, and a general; and that for his cool deliberate, skilful and gallant conduct in the battle of Tipecanoe, he well deserves the warmest thanks of his country and his nation.

Gen. Anthony Wayne, in his Letter to the Sec retary of War, giving an official account of his sanguinary Indian Battle, in 1792, said : "My faithful and gallant Lieutenant Harrison
